_____ Animals other than service animals. A service animal is defined as a dog or miniature horse that has been individually trained to do work or perform tasks for an individual with a disability. The tasks performed by the service animal must be directly related to the person's disability.

_____ Any event at which an admission fee is charged.

_____ Any event at which future business will be solicited by a speaker through literature available at the meeting.

_____ Any event at which merchandise is offered for sale. Exceptions are made for Douglas ESD/Roseburg Public Library/Friends of the Library-sponsored events as well as vendors who have a City of Roseburg business license.

_____ Burning of any items, including candles or incense.

_____ Commercial activities.

_____ Smoking, vaping, or aerosolizing. Roseburg Public Library is a tobacco-free facility.

_____ Staples, tacks, nails, tape, or adhesives on painted surfaces.

_____ Violations of State and local Fire Codes and OSHA Regulations.

_____ Weapons of any kind, except as permitted by ORS 166.370.

ENFORCEMENT OF POLICIES

The Library Director and their designated staff are authorized to interpret and enforce these policies in accordance with applicable law and to ensure appropriate use of meeting rooms.

For violations of this policy, one written warning will be given. A second violation may result in the renter being prohibited from renting any meeting rooms for three months. Subsequent violations may result in additional penalties up to and including permanent prohibition from renting any meeting rooms.

A patron shall have the right to appeal the Library Director's written decision regarding a violation to the City Manager. A written appeal must be filed within fifteen (15) days after the date of notification by the Library Director. The written appeal filed with the City Manager must state the basis for the appeal.

Unless the appellant and City agree to a longer period of time, an appeal shall be heard by the City Manager within thirty (30) days of receipt of the written appeal. The City Manager shall give the appellant and any other persons requesting the same, at least ten (10) days' notice of the time and place of such hearing.

At the time and place set for the hearing upon the appeal from the action of the Library Director, the City Manager shall give the appellant and any other interested party a reasonable opportunity to be heard. The City Manager shall hear and determine the appeal on the basis of the applicant's written appeal statement and any additional evidence the City Manager deems appropriate. At the hearing, the appellant may present testimony and oral argument personally or by counsel. The rules of evidence as used by courts of law do not apply. In all such cases, the burden of proof shall be upon the appellant.

The City Manager shall uphold, or modify and uphold, the Library Director's action, or reverse the Library Director's action and render a new decision in the matter. The decision of the City Manager shall be issued within ten (10) days of the hearing and shall be in writing and contain findings of fact and a determination of the issues presented. The decision of the City Manager shall be final.

RESPONSIBILITIES

In case any claim, action, or proceeding is brought against the City in any forum whatsoever by reason of any obligation to be performed under the terms of meeting room use by the user or arising from any act or omission of the user or the attendees and the user shall, upon notice from City, defend at trial and on appeal the City at the sole expense of the user, by counsel of City's choosing. This obligation to defend extends to all manner of proceedings, whether in a judicial, administrative, or other forum.

To the fullest extent authorized by law, the user shall indemnify and hold harmless the City from and against any and all loss, cost, claim, damage, injury, illness, or liability whatsoever, including reasonable attorney fees and costs of litigation and appeal, arising from the activities of the user, subject to the limitations of liability for public bodies set forth in the Oregon Tort Claims Act ORS 30.26030.300 and the Oregon Constitution.

By virtue of allowing use of a room, the City is not a partner or joint venturer with, or agent of, the user in connection with the activity carried on during use of the room.

Meeting rooms are provided in "as is" condition and order. During use of a room, the user must maintain and secure the room in good, clean, and safe condition. Before leaving, the room and any areas adjacent thereto affected by use of the room must be restored to the condition they were in immediately before commencement of use. Upon expiration of allotted time for use of room, users must peaceably and quietly quit and surrender the room in as good a condition as found. All extra materials must be removed. All garbage must be disposed of in the proper containers.

The user hereby fully and unconditionally waives its individual and collective rights to recover from the City any loss, damage, restitution, or compensation arising out of meeting room use or out of the use of any other City property associated with meeting room use. The City shall in no event be liable for any loss or damage suffered or incurred by the user for any reason whatsoever. Such waiver includes, without limitation, waiver of liability for death, personal injury, illness, theft, damage to motor vehicles, loss of property from within motor vehicles, business interruption, lost profits, consequential damages and rights of subrogation.

Failure to comply with meeting room policies may result in revocation of meeting room use privileges.
