Located along the north shore of the South Umpqua River, stretching from Stewart Park Drive to Rowe Street.

This 45 acre park runs nearly 1.3 miles along the South Umpqua River. The majority of the park is undeveloped and naturally landscaped with mature Douglas Fir, Ponderosa Pine, Madrone, and Oak trees. The main bike trail runs through the park, connecting Stewart Park to the downtown core. An eighteen-hole disc golf course is set in the park. There is ample opportunity for recreation with various river activities, as well as enjoy the natural beauty of the park.
